Tigers Defeated In Ninth Inning

Crowd Goes Wild When Elberfeld Is Hit with a Pitched Ball, Forcing in the Winning Tally-Final Count, 3 to 2.

Five thousand baseball rooters in the concrete coliseum here yesterday arose en masse and yelled themselves hoarse when Bobby Groom, the Nationals' lanky pitcher, trotted across the plate in the last half of the ninth inning with the run that unknotted the tie and gave the Nationals the final game of the Detroit series, 3 to 2.

The thrilling wind-up had as a stage setting three men on bases, one out, and the score 2 to 2. Kid Elberfeld was up, and a long fly. a safe smash, or a Tiger wobble would have turned the trick. Nothing like this happened. Works wound up with that crazy motion of his and the ball found a resting place in the middle of Elberfeld's back.

"He didn't try to get out of the way," yelled Catcher Stanage. "Take your base," ordered Arbitrator Mullen, who promptly turned in his heel and walked to the dressing room.

Georgetown Wins Opening Football Game of Season by 39 to 0 Score-Coach Neilson Tries Out New Men.

The best looking football team George-town has presented in years handed the Seaman Guinners a 22 to 0 beating yea-terday on the Hilltop, in the opening gridiron battle of the season.

gridiron battle of the season.

While this clash was nothing more than a practice game, the Biue and Graveleven worked with a snap and diship that would have done credit to a team in midseason. The score rolled up against the Sallors was just eleven points lower than last year's figures, but the Gunners are at least $5 per cent stronger this year.

The showing was not satisfactory to Coach Nelison, for he had two regulars. Jimmy Dunn and Barricello, out of the game at the start and put twelve substitutes into the sectimage during the sec-game at the start and put twelve substitutes into the scrimmage during the second half. The heat bothered the men, and it is remarkable that more were not exhausted. Only two were injured, and neither of these seriously. Both were Seaman Gumers, Kerr and Nelson. Coach Nelson worked nearly every man on his squad, so he could gat a line on them. Of the new men who were given a chance Wayne Hart and Greer made good impressions, also Donnelly, who worked a few minutes in the final quarter.

Old Men Look Best.

The old men, and all but one are back in school, played the game that made them famous last year and gave Virginia vib-to-d whipping. Dave White's dashing through the line and Pury's broken field running were the offensive features while Wymard, Hart, and C. Vlyman were lowers of strength on the defense. The Seaman Gunners were a vastly improved team over last year, playing more new football and working a variety of trick plays. Several forward passes were attempted, but only one was completed. Kerr getting the ball and running twenty yards. This was the longest gain made by the Sallors. Georgetown's goal line was in danger only once, when the visitors had the ball on the Blue and Orange's S-yard line, and whiatle blew. field running were the offensive features.
